

DISCRIMINATION IS AGAINST THE LAW

Upstate Orthopedics complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex or sex orientation. Upstate Orthopedics does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

Upstate Orthopedics provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)

Upstate Orthopedics provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as, qualified interpreters and/or information written in other languages.

If you need these services, contact Upstate Orthopedic's Compliance Officer.

If you believe that Upstate Orthopedics has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with:
